Tricolor stands as a cherished emblem of the nation's relentless struggle for freedom.

It resembles

Unity,
Diversity, and Progress.

The song Bharoto Bhagyo Bidhata composed by Rabindranath Tagore in 1911 was renamed as 'Jan Gan Man' and adopted by the Constituent Assembly of India as the national anthem on 24th January 1950

TRI-COLOUR

The top band of saffron colour represents the strength and courage of the country, the middle band of white colour with Dharma Chakra indicates peace and truth while the last band of green colour shows fertility, growth and auspiciousness of the land

Bharoto Bhagyo Bidhata

- This year (2023) 15th August 2023 is Tuesday & hope many employees will avail leave on Monday.
- How do you treat this leave Deduct only ONE DAY or you will deduct otherwise?
- 趉 Do you know Sandwich Leave? It is not a law or act and is not mandatory. Several companies include it in their HR Leave Policy to have control over the frequency of leaves taken by the employees and to keep a check on the misuse of the weekends and holidays provided. When an employee takes leave before and after the holiday, all 3 days shall be credited to the leave account of the employee. When a company works 5 days a week, an employee takes leave on Friday as well as on Monday then all four days from Friday to Monday shall be credited as leaves in the leave account of the employee. In the above case it is different.

What are the wages to be paid to an employee on National/Festival Holiday?

(in case someone who is working on 15th August 2023)

- 1. An employee who is paid wages by the day or at piece rates shall be entitled to be paid wages for any holiday allowed on NFH days. No deduction of wages shall be made, as it is a paid holiday.
- 2. At a rate equivalent to the daily average of his wages to be calculated in the prescribed manner
- 3. Where an employee works on any holiday allowed to him on any National/Festival Holiday, he shall at his option be entitled to:
 - a) Twice the wages; (if the daily average wage is Rs.500, he needs to be paid Rs.1000. It is not Basic wages, it is Gross wages), or
 - b) Wages for such day and to avail himself of a substituted holiday with wages (on one of the three Days immediately before or after the day on which he so works)
- 4. Provided that no such employee shall be entitled to be paid any wages for any of the holidays allowed under this section, other than (Republic Day, May Day, Independence Day, Gandhi Jayanthi) unless he has been in the service under the employer for a total period of 30 days within a continuous period of ninety days immediately preceding such holiday. (For this purpose, a weekly or any other holiday or authorized leave availed of by an employee shall be included in computing the period of 30 days mentioned therein).
- 5. In very few States of India, the requirement is twice the Wages and a substituted holiday with wages.
- 6. Where an employee has not completed 30 days, he/she shall NOT be allowed to avail festival holiday with wages.
- 7. This Act is not applicable for an employee in position of Management & an employee whose work involves in travelling.
- 8. If you are going to engage few employees on that day, follow the due process under the Act.
